Jeanne Bonds

NC House 39

I ASK FOR YOUR VOTE MAY 4TH.

I have endeavored to present myself in public forums so you the voter can ask questions of me directly. I do not believe in wasting your time or the precious campaign contributions entrusted to me by hard working families like yours, with misleading campaign mailers when there are so many real issues to address for you and your family.

My record for honesty, integrity and effectiveness speaks for itself. I will work tirelessly for you everyday to create policy that makes Wake County the very best it can be for the families that live here!" -Former Mayor Jeanne Bonds

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT JEANNE BONDS:

"Jeanne did a truly extraordinary job representing the NC Courts before the General Assembly. I have no doubt she will bring the same energy and success to the people of Wake County in the NC House." -Former NC Supreme Court Chief Justice Burley B. Mitchell, Jr.

"Mayor Jeanne Bonds' tireless efforts resulted in a well-planned community, economic growth, diverse housing and a high quality of life. I expect her to bring the same results as a Member of the NC House." -Knightdale Mayor Pro Tem Mike Chalk

"I endorse and support former Mayor Jeanne Bonds for NC House." -Former Wendell Mayor Tim Hinnant

"I endorse and support Jeanne Bonds for NC House. She understands our communities and is a committed advocate for the people." -Pastor Lenwood Long, Restoration Community Development Corporation, New Bethel Church, Rolesville

"I support former Mayor Jeanne Bonds for NC House because our problems cannot possibly be solved by skeptics or cynics whose horizons are limited by the obvious realities. We must support those candidates who continue to conceive and birth paradigms of things that never were! Join me in supporting Jeanne!" -Pastor John Campbell, Executive Director, NC Human Relations Commission

"We know Jeanne Bonds will advocate for public employees and their families in the NC General Assembly." -Kevin and Jamila Mendez Smith, Garner

"I know Jeanne Bonds' heart and she will fight for public education to ensure every child has opportunity in life." -Eva T. Williams, first grade teacher for 40 years, Jeanne's first grade teacher

"As parents, we truly believe Jeanne Bonds will fight for educational resources so our children will be contributors to the future workforce." -William and Paula Lee, Knightdale

"Former Mayor Jeanne Bonds served the community with great passion and made a difference in a growing town. I have no doubt she will be a positive force in the NC House and we will reap the benefits." -Former Knightdale Mayor Doug Boyd

"We trust Jeanne Bonds to use good judgment." -John and Kim Shaw, Knightdale

Jeanne Bonds is also supported by Former Governor William Winter of Mississippi, who is a progressive education Democrat and the honoree of the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation.

"I have known Jeanne for more than 10 years since her days as Deputy Director of the NC court system and can confidently say that she maintains a level of energy, honesty and ethics that is unparalleled." -Robert DiDomenico, Raleigh

"I will watch Jeanne's political career with anticipation. I have seen Jeanne achieve tremendous results and observed her strong work ethic." -Former Governor Bob Scott, 2007.
